

MA Thesis Supervisors* 22/23		GLOBAL ARCHAEOLOGY
Supervisor	Expertise
Dr. M. van Aerde	The archaeology of connections between ancient East Africa and the Indian Subcontinent. This includes Indian Ocean maritime trade, Persian land routes and Himalayan rock art studies.
Prof.dr. P.M.M.G. Akkermans	Near Eastern Archaeology, with an emphasis on Neolithisation
Prof.dr. L.W.S.W. Amkreutz	Expertise in Public Archaeology in particular, museums and science communication and Prehistoric Archaeology in particular the Mesolithic and Neolithic as well as the archaeology of Doggerland
Dr. Q. Bourgeois	Burial Mounds and Funerary archaeology combined with network analysis and GIS approaches in later prehistory of Europe
Prof.dr. P.A.I.H. Degryse	Archaeometry, focused on the exploitation and use in ancient times of industrial minerals and ores.
Dr. ir. M. Driessen	(Military) logistics, infrastructure and trade in the Roman period
Prof. Dr. B.S. Düring	Near Eastern Archaeology, with emphasis on the emergence of social complexity and the archaeology of imperialism
Dr. G. Dusseldorp	Behaviour of Pleistocene hunter-gatherers both in Northwest Europe and South Africa.
Dr. A. Geurds	Archaeology of the Isthmo-Colombian Area & Mesoamerica, focusing on landscape, identity and monumentality. History and theory of archaeology, aspects of Contemporary Archaeology, as well as collaborative archaeology in the Americas.
Dr. A. T. ten Harkel	(Post-) Roman Archaeology; Early medieval, archaeology, first millennium; Mediterranean and North Sea; Landscape archaeology, material culture, Remote sensing.
Prof.dr. C.L. Hofman	Archaeology of the Americas, with emphasis on the deep history of the Caribbean and adjacent areas, settlement archaeology, material culture studies, and community engagement
Dr. T. Kalayci	Sensor data integration, urban studies, environmental modelling, production landscapes, and landscapes of movement within Near Eastern and Mediterranean contexts
Dr. M. Kerschner	Classical archaeology, the archaeology of Greek and Western Anatolian cultures in the Early Iron Age, the Archaic and the Classical period.
Dr. M.H.G. Kuijpers	Craft, cognition, skill, material histories, technologies, and/or disruptive innovations; specifically metalworking and domestication. Also: The relevance of archaeology; Prehistory of Europe.
Dr. A.J. Louwen	Bronze Age Landscapes in NW Europe
Prof.dr. M.R. Manders	Cultural heritage, maritime archaeology, maritime history, underwater archaeology

Dr. R.M.R. van Oosten	Urban and Medieval Archaeology; Low Countries; ceramics; historical GIS. Also welcome: theses Early Medieval Archaeology.
Dr. A. Politopoulos	Archaeology of the Late Bronze and Early Iron Age Eastern Mediterranean; Archaeology of Empires; Video Games and Media Archaeology.
Dr. I.R. Simpson	Archaeology of early Islamic and medieval to modern periods in the Middle East and global interconnections.
Prof.dr. M.A. Soressi	Hominin Diversity Archaeology, with emphasis on the Middle Palaeolithic, the Early Upper Palaeolithic, and application of archaeological sciences to Palaeolithic archaeology.
Dr. A. Verpoorte	Palaeolithic of Europe, with emphasis on the first modern humans in Europe, Neanderthal behavioural ecology and evolutionary approaches to archaeology.
Prof.dr. M.J. Versluys	Classical and Mediterranean Archaeology, with emphasis on the cultural dynamics of the Hellenistic-Roman world
Prof.dr. J.A.C. Vroom	Medieval and Early Modern Eurasia, specializing in the material culture of the 7 th to 19 th centuries
Dr. M. de Waal	Island and coastal archaeology with a focus on the Caribbean and archaeological prospection

MA Thesis Supervisors* 22/23		SCIENCE-BASED ARCHAEOLOGY
Supervisor	Expertise
Dr. D.J.G. Braekmans	Understanding of the nature and use of natural resources, and material objects.
Prof.dr. A. N. Brysbaert	Ancient technology, crafts and materials in the east Mediterranean
Prof.dr. P.A.I.H. Degryse	Archaeometry, focused on the exploitation and use in ancient times of industrial minerals and ores.
Dr. M.H. Field	Archaeobotany, with emphasis on the Mid- to Late Pleistocene in Europe and putting archaeology into a stratigraphical and palaeoenvironmental context.
Dr. A.G. Henry	Plant microremains in archaeological context and plant food consumption by Neanderthals and Early modern Humans
Dr. T. Kalayci	Sensor data integration, urban studies, environmental modelling, production landscapes, and landscapes of movement within Near Eastern and Mediterranean contexts
Dr. J.E. Laffoon	The integration of bioarchaeological and biochemical approaches to the study of patterns of mobility/migration, diet, and exchange.
Dr. K. Lambers	Digital and computational archaeology, with emphasis on surveying, 3D recording, remote sensing, modelling, spatial analysis, and digital image analysis.
Dr. L. Llorente Rodriguez	Archaeozoology; development and evolution throughout time; hunter-gatherers economies and the transition to agropastoralist economies; domestication processes.
Dr. J.A. Mol	Geoarchaeology; prospection, landscape development in Europe
Dr. R. Schats	Osteoarchaeology and palaeopathology in a comparative perspective, with emphasis on medieval health and disease

Dr. S. Schrader	Osteoarchaeology: bioarchaeological reconstruction of daily activities
-----------------	--

MA Thesis Supervisors* 22/23		Heritage and Museum Studies
Supervisor	Expertise
Dr. M. Berger	Museum, Collections and Society
Dr. M. De Campos Francozo	Museology, with emphasis on museum collections, history of collections and provenance studies, especially but not exclusively focused on Latin America.
Prof.dr. J.C.A. Kolen	Landscape Archaeology and Cultural Heritage of Landscapes from a Heritage Management Perspective
Prof.dr. M.R. Manders	Cultural heritage, maritime archaeology, maritime history, underwater archaeology
Dr. I.R. Simpson	Archaeology of early Islamic and medieval to modern periods in the Middle East and global interconnections.
Prof.dr. P.J. ter Keurs	Museums, Collections and Society, with emphasis on critical museums studies and the study of material culture.

MA Thesis Supervisors* 22/23		Applied Archaeology
Supervisor	Expertise
Dr. Q. Bourgeois	Burial Mounds and Funerary archaeology combined with network analysis and GIS approaches in later prehistory of Europe
Dr. ir. M. Driessen	(Military) logistics, infrastructure and trade in the Roman period
Dr. A. Geurds	Pre-hispanic past of Central America and Mexico from an anthropological-archaeological perspective
Dr. R. Jansen	Field Archaeology, Applied Archaeology, Iron Age and (Early) Roman Period in Europe
Dr. T. Kalayci	Sensor data integration, urban studies, environmental modelling, production landscapes, and landscapes of movement within Near Eastern and Mediterranean contexts
Prof.dr.. J.C.A. Kolen	Landscape Archaeology and Cultural Heritage of Landscapes from a Heritage Management perspective
Dr. A.J. Louwen	Bronze Age Landscapes in NW Europe
Prof.dr. M.R. Manders	Cultural heritage, maritime archaeology, maritime history, underwater archaeology
Dr. J.A. Mol	Geoarchaeology; prospection, landscape development in Europe
Dr. R.M.R. van Oosten	Urban and Medieval Archaeology; Low Countries; ceramics; historical GIS. Also welcome: theses Early Medieval Archaeology.
Dr. A. Verpoorte	Palaeolithic of Europe, with emphasis on the first modern humans in Europe, Neanderthal behavioral ecology and evolutionary approaches to archaeology.
Dr. M. de Waal	Island and coastal archaeology with a focus on the Caribbean and archaeological prospection

