Course and Examination Regulations

valid as of 1 September 2017

Programme-specific section:

Master's Programme: Asian Studies (120 EC)

These Course and Examination Regulations (henceforth OER) have been drawn up in accordance with the Higher Education and Research Act [Wet op het hoger onderwijs en wetenschappelijk onderzoek; WHW] (henceforth the Act) and the following Leiden University regulations:

- the Leiden Register of Study Programmes Framework Document;
- the Academic Calendar;
- the Regulations for Student Registration;
- the Regulations for Admission to Master's Programmes.

Pursuant to Article 7.14 of the Act, the Faculty Board regularly evaluates the Course and Examination Regulations and considers, for the purpose of monitoring and adjusting the study load, how much time it takes students to comply with them. In accordance with Article 9.18 of the Act, the departmental committee is assigned the task of annually assessing the implementation of the OER.

These Course and Examination Regulations consist of two sections: a faculty section that is the same for all programmes and a section that contains information that is specific to a particular programme, what is known as the programme-specific section of the Course and Examination Regulations. In the text below the relevant articles will refer to this section.

5.2.3 As further clarification of Article 2.8 concerning the student's command of the language of instruction, the language requirement for this master's programme is English IELTS 7.0, TOEFL 100 (internet-based) or Cambridge English: Proficiency (CPE).

The Faculty Board may request that applicants demonstrate an adequate command at this level. For more information on language tests and diplomas which are sufficient with regard to the required command of English please see <http://www.students.leiden.edu/application-admission/master/prospective/language-requirements.html>.

5.2.4 Pursuant to Article 7.30b (1) and (2) of the Act persons will be granted admission to the programme, if they can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Faculty Board that they meet the following admission requirements:

Admission per 2017-2018

- a bachelor's degree from a research university, equivalent to the level of a Dutch academic Bachelor's degree, or demonstrate to meet the requirements for such a degree, including the General Academic Skills listed in Appendix B, and
- knowledge of the nature and role of as well as the ability to analyse and report on academic inquiry in the humanities or social sciences; and
- prior education must include completed components at the bachelor's level (which may include the thesis) equivalent to at least 30 credits on at least three out of these six disciplines: history, art, culture, politics, society or economy of one or more East Asian countries or regions.

As part of the admission procedure applicants are required to submit a written essay in English on a China, Japan or Korea related subject of app. 1250 words.

Admission per 2018-2019

- a bachelor's degree from a research university, equivalent to the level of a Dutch academic Bachelor's degree, or demonstrate to meet the requirements for such a degree, including the General Academic Skills listed in Appendix B, and

- minimally a 7.0 (out of 10), or the equivalent thereof, as grade for the final BA thesis, and
- knowledge of the nature and role of as well as the ability to analyse and report on academic inquiry in the humanities or social sciences; and
- prior education must include completed components at the bachelor's level (which may include the thesis) equivalent to at least 30 credits on at least three out of these six disciplines: history, art, culture, politics, society or economy of one or more East Asian countries or regions.

As part of the admission procedure applicants are required to submit a written essay in English on a China, Japan or Korea related subject of app. 1250 words.

In addition, applicant must also meet the following specific requirements per specialisation:

(admission for both 2017-2018 as for 2018-2019)

Specialisation Chinese studies

- fundamental knowledge of pre-modern and modern China; and
- knowledge of sinological traditions and understanding of disciplinary-methodological issues.
- sufficient command of Chinese, at least level 4 (HSK New Style) or level 3 (TOCFL).

Please note that because an important distinguishing aspect of the programme is advanced language acquisition in Chinese, this specialisation is not suitable for native speakers or for persons with a level 6 (HSK New Style) or equivalent level 6 (TOCFL).

Specialisation Japanese Studies

- fundamental knowledge of pre-modern and modern Japan; and
- knowledge of japanological traditions and understanding of disciplinary-methodological issues.
- sufficient command of Japanese, at JLTP 2 level, with a maximum of level JLTP 1.

Please note that because an important distinguishing aspect of the programme is advanced language acquisition in Japanese, this specialisation is not suitable for native speakers, and persons with near-native fluency and a BA or MA degree from a Japanese university.

Specialisation Korean Studies

- fundamental knowledge of pre-modern and modern Korea; and
- knowledge of Koreanist traditions and understanding of disciplinary-methodological issues.
- sufficient command of Korean, at level TOPIC 4.

Please note that because an important distinguishing aspect of the programme is advanced language acquisition in Korean, this specialisation is not suitable for native speakers, and for students with a higher TOPIC level.

As part of the admission procedure applicants are required to submit a written essay in English on a China, Japan or Korea related subject of app. 1250 words.

5.2.5 The Executive Board has determined a maximum capacity for the specialisations of this programme, the order of admission will be determined by the qualitative admission requirements as referred to in Article 5.2.4. The maximum capacity set for the specialisations of this programme and the admission procedure are described in Appendix D.

Article 5.4 Bridging Programmes (Premasters)

Not applicable.

Appendix D - Maximum Capacity and Admission Procedure Asian Studies (120 EC)

Article 1 Maximum Capacity

1. The Faculty Board has set the maximum capacity for the specialisation of the Master's Programme in Asian Studies (120 EC) for the academic year 2018-2019 to:
 - Chinese Studies: 30 students;
 - Japanese Studies: 17 students;
 - Korean Studies: 12 students.
2. The Admissions Board ranks the requests on the basis of the selection criteria stated in art. 5.2 of the Course and Examination Regulations.

Article 2 Procedure for admission to the programme

1. The admissions assessment takes place once a year in respect of the intake in September.
2. Requests for admission to the specialisation in Chinese Studies, Japanese Studies or Korean Studies must be submitted before 1 April. Given the selective nature of the specialisation, this deadline applies to all applicants.
3. With regard to admission to the programme, as provided for in article 5.2 of the Course and Examination Regulations, the Admissions Board assesses the knowledge and skills of the applicants on the basis of the files they have submitted, including the essay mentioned in article 5.2.4.
4. If necessary the Board can contact the applicant by mail or telephone at any time during the admission procedure in order to gain further information.
5. The Admissions Board decides on the basis of this assessment
 - a. which applicants meet the entry requirements of the specialisation – if appropriate on the condition that they have been awarded their bachelor's degree in time – and can in principle be admitted;
 - b. which applicants cannot be admitted because they do not meet the requirements.
6. Applicants who are placed in category b receive a negative admissions decision by 1 May at the latest.
7. The Board ranks the applicants in category a on the basis of their suitability to the specialisation, having regard to the entry requirements as specified in article 5.2 of the Course and Examination Regulations, the files the applicants have submitted and, if the Board has requested this, the further information provided by the applicant.
8. On the basis of this ranking the Board issues a recommendation on 15 May at the latest to the Faculty Board to admit the top ranking applicants to the respective specialisations of the programme, up to the numbers specified in article 1.1. These applicants receive a positive admissions decision on 31 May at the latest.
9. The remaining applicants in category a are informed that they can in principle be admitted to the programme but that they have been placed on the waiting list and will not receive an admissions decision pending places becoming free. They are informed here of their position on the waiting list.
10. Applicants who have received a positive admissions decision must express within two weeks of the date of the decision whether they will enrol on the programme. If an applicant does not indicate within this period whether he or she will take the place on the programme, the applicant at the top of the waiting list will receive a positive admissions decision.
11. If the admissions assessment results in fewer applicants in category a than the maximum capacity of the programme, the Admissions Board can consider the requests that have been submitted after 1 April. These requests will be considered in the order of arrival.
