Course and Examination Regulations

valid as of 1 September 2022

Programme-specific section:

Master's Programme: Arts, Literature and Media (research)

These Course and Examination Regulations (henceforth OER) have been drawn up in accordance with the Higher Education and Research Act [Wet op het hoger onderwijs en wetenschappelijk onderzoek; WHW] (henceforth the Act) and the following Leiden University regulations:

- the Leiden Register of Study Programmes Framework Document;
- the Academic Calendar;
- the Regulations for Student Registration, Tuition Fees and Examination Fees;
- the Regulations for Admission to Master's Programmes.

Pursuant to Article 7.14 of the Act, the Faculty Board regularly evaluates the Course and Examination Regulations and considers, for the purpose of monitoring and adjusting the study load, how much time it takes students to comply. In accordance with Article 9.18 of the Act, the departmental committee is assigned the task of annually assessing the implementation of the OER.

These Course and Examination Regulations consist of two sections:

- a faculty section that is the same for all programmes and
- a section that contains information that is specific to a particular programme, what is known as the programme-specific section of the Course and Examination Regulations.

In the text below the relevant articles will refer to this programme-specific section. Other articles are included in the faculty section.

Chapter 2 Description of the Programme

Article 2.1 Objectives of the programme

The programme has the following objectives:

1. to broaden and deepen the students' knowledge, understanding and skills, and train them in the use of scientific methods in the fields of arts, literature and media;
2. to enable students to develop the following academic and professional skills:
  - the ability to solve academic problems independently, critically and creatively;
  - the ability to analyse complex problems;
  - the ability to clearly report academic results, both in writing and orally,
3. to prepare students for an academic career at a university for postgraduate programmes;
4. to prepare students for a non-academic career in the public or private sector for which advanced research skills and practical research experience are a prerequisite.

Article 2.2 Specialisations

Not applicable.

Article 2.3 Learning outcomes

Graduates of the programme have attained the following learning outcomes, listed according to the Dublin descriptors:

I. Knowledge and understanding

Graduates demonstrate, in their written and oral work:

1. to have adequate analytical and interpretive skills; to have a thorough knowledge and understanding of, and well-developed sensibility in an area of specialisation within the domains of Arts and Culture, Literary Studies and Media Studies; of the core concepts and current research issues related to a topic or theme in the chosen specialisation or to the research apparatus and methodologies;
2. a thorough knowledge and understanding of, and sensibility for a substantial range of works, genres and current developments in their specialisation;
3. an adequate knowledge of the relevant context (historical, cultural, social, religious, political, ideological, scientific, aesthetic) of the production, reception and dissemination of arts, literature and media and their impact on society at the time of production and in the present;
4. a thorough knowledge and understanding of the multi- and interdisciplinary aspects of the program, in relation to Arts and Culture, Literary Studies, Media Studies, History, Social Sciences and other related fields. 'Arts, literature and media' are understood here to indicate an interdisciplinary, intermedial and intercultural field of inquiry into artistic and cultural practices.

II. Applying knowledge and understanding

Research master's graduates demonstrate, in their written and oral work, the ability to:

1. define a research topic, formulate research questions and identify an object of inquiry (a corpus of art works, buildings or design; a corpus of literary texts, images and texts; a corpus of games; or cultural practices related to arts, literature or media) that will allow them to answer these research questions in a way that conforms with current scholarly practices in the fields of studies concerned;

2. select an appropriate methodology and body of theory for the analysis and interpretation of the object of inquiry, so that insightful and original answers to the research question can be given that include the specificities of arts, literature, media and their interaction;

3. bring object, analysis and theory into critical interaction. This implies that the object of inquiry is done justice in its own right and is treated comprehensively, is clarified or problematised by the concepts and methods. It also implies that the concepts and methods applied are done justice, clarified or problematised by the object of inquiry;

4. consider theories and methods in such a way that the path to innovations in the field can be made explicit;

5. understand the used media's specificity;

6. understand the social and historical dimensions of the researched works of art or practices, literary works or practices, and media related works and practices, and the theoretical approaches to them;

6. contribute creative solutions to on-going debates in the disciplines, based on independent research and theoretical reflection.

III. Making judgements

Graduates demonstrate, in their written and oral work, that they:

1. have sufficient sensitivity and sensibility with regard to the different aspects involved in the topic of inquiry;

2. can critically evaluate the relevance of existing studies of a corpus of works or cultural practices;

2. can build an argument that leads to its conclusion in a clear, cogent and verifiable manner;

3. can reflect critically on the role played by the graduates' methodological, theoretical and non-theoretical convictions and interests and in relation to international debates;

4. can include, in addition to theoretical aspects, social, historical and ethical aspects, in the process that leads to the conclusion.

IV. Communication

Graduates demonstrate, in their written and oral work, the ability to:

1. formulate a clear and well-founded thesis, hypothesis and research questions, and to divide the thesis into convenient and manageable parts;

2. give a clear, systematic and well-founded oral or written report of the state of the art in their research field, the selected object of inquiry and the methodologies, concepts and theories used;

3. write grammatically correct English, according to the conventions of an accepted academic practice (e.g. Chicago Manual of Style or Art Bulletin Style Sheet).

V. Learning Skills

Graduates display, in their written and oral work, the ability to:

1. independently identify and collect the literature and historical sources in the field of arts and culture and to use current bibliographical instruments;

2. independently study the literature and historical sources of the field and to judge their quality and reliability;
3. formulate a clear and well-founded question and to divide the question into lucid and manageable parts;
4. give a clear and well-founded oral and written report of research results meeting the criteria of the field;
5. initiate and conduct a research project under supervision at the entrance level of national or international subsequent education (PhD).
6. apply learning skills that allow them to initiate and conduct a research project with a great degree of independence and autonomy, under expert national or international supervision. This means that graduates:
  - have defined the research question and written the thesis independently;
  - have conducted relevant and sufficient bibliographical research;
  - have drawn up a realistic research plan
  - know how to position themselves in international debates, both methodologically and theoretically

Article 2.5 Study load

The programme has a study load of 120 credits.

Article 2.8 Language of instruction

2.8.1. Subject to the Code of Conduct on the Language of Instruction and Examination<sup>1</sup> the language in which the instruction and in which the examinations and final examinations are held is English. Students are expected to have an adequate command of the language(s) of instruction and examination in the programme, in accordance with the requirements stated in Article 5.2.3. As appropriate, the Faculty publishes OER in English for English-taught programmes.

2.8.2. Contrary to Article 2.8.1, in individual cases the Board of Examiners can permit the student to write the final thesis in another language, in accordance with the Guideline on Language Policy.<sup>2</sup>

Chapter 3 Curriculum

Article 3.1 Compulsory components

3.1.1 The programme includes compulsory components worth 90 EC on a total study load of 120 EC. These compulsory components include the set components from which a student is obliged to choose. This includes the electives offered by the recognised national research schools<sup>3</sup>, from which students must choose electives totalling 10 EC. Students can freely choose master courses for 30 EC within their area of research, yet an extra requirement is obligatory in that case in order to complete the component at level 600.

Chapter 4 Examinations, Final Examination and Further Education

Article 4.2 Obligatory sequence

4.2.1 Not applicable.

Article 4.3 Form of examination

4.3.6 Not applicable.

Chapter 5 Admission to the programme per September 2023 or February 2024

Article 5.1 Confirmation of admission

See the faculty section.

Article 5.2 Admission to the programme

5.2.1 a. Not applicable.

5.2.1 b. Holders of one of the following degrees may be admitted to the programme (Article 7.30b (1) of the Act), if they can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Faculty Board that they meet the following admission requirements, without prejudice to the requirements specified in 5.2.4.

- a bachelor's degree from a research university, equivalent to the level of a Dutch academic Bachelor's degree, including the General Academic Skills listed in Appendix B of the Faculty section of these regulations, and
- The bachelor's degree is in one of the following programmes:
  - Comparative Literature/Literary Studies;
  - a specific Language and Culture (classic Greek, Latin, Dutch, English, French, German, Italian, Spanish, Portuguese);
  - Art History;
  - Culture, media and film studies, or related programmes, with a focus on art and culture.

5.2.1 c. Not applicable.

5.2.2. Any person who fails to meet the degree requirements referred to in 5.2.1 may submit a request to the Board of Admissions. The Board of Admissions assesses whether the applicant may be granted admission to the programme.

To this end, the Board of Admissions assesses whether the applicant possesses sufficient knowledge, understanding and skills at the same level as a bachelor's degree or related bachelor's degree as referred to in 5.2.1, under (a) and (b). The Board may also impose further conditions.

The Board of Admissions assesses, where relevant, whether the applicant meets the qualitative selection requirements mentioned referred to in 5.2.4.

Article 5.2.3 Dutch and English languages

5.2.3.1 As further clarification of Article 2.8 concerning command of the language of instruction, a student who wishes to be admitted to an English-taught master's programme must have one of the following diplomas, or must meet the criteria of:

- an International Baccalaureate diploma from a programme taught in English (or an IB diploma with English A);
- a diploma of secondary or higher education completed in Australia, Canada (with the exception of French-language programmes in Canada), Ireland, Malta, New Zealand, Singapore, the United Kingdom, the United States or South-Africa;

- a diploma of an English-taught university degree programme completed at a Dutch research university;
- a Dutch pre-university education (VWO) diploma.

5.2.3.2 If a student who wishes to be admitted does not meet the requirements in 5.2.3.1, at least one of the following English language requirements for this master's programme can be set:

- IELTS 7.0;
- Toefl (internet-based) 100;
- C2 Proficiency (former CPE) or C1 Advanced (former CAE) 185.
- A minimum score of IELTS 7.0 or TOEFL 25 is required for each of the four components.
- Additionally candidates should have sufficient knowledge of the language of their specialisation – classic Greek/Latin, Dutch, English, French, German, Italian, Spanish, (Brazilian) Portuguese – in order to be able to read texts (at least Common European Framework level B1).

The test result may not be older than two years at the time of enrolment for the programme.

5.2.3.3 Not applicable.

5.2.3.4 Not applicable.

For more information on language tests and diplomas which are sufficient with regard to the required command of English please see <https://www.universiteitleiden.nl/en/education/admission-and-application/masters/admission-requirements#language-requirements>.

Article 5.2.4 Qualitative admission requirements (selection requirements)

5.2.4.1 In addition to the requirements specified in 5.2.1 or 5.2.2 the following qualitative admission requirements apply for the programme pursuant to Article 7.30b (2) of the Act:

- A. Good grades comparable with an average mark of at least 7.5 (Dutch grading system) for their entire bachelor's programme,
- B. A grade for the bachelor's thesis of an 8 or higher, and
- C. Affinity with and suitability for scholarly research in the specific field of the programme and the ability to clearly report on research, and
- D. Demonstrable motivation to study the particular Research MA programme.

5.2.4.2 These qualitative admission requirements will be measured or assessed according to the following method:

- A and B: as evidenced by a transcript of records and diploma of the relevant obtained academic degree.
- C: to be demonstrated by a "Writing Sample". All applicants are required to submit a writing sample (a relevant research paper or Bachelor's Thesis). In case applicants are unable to demonstrate via a writing sample that they meet the requirement sub 5.2.4.1 D, are required to submit a 1,250 word essay as part of the admission process:
  - in this essay they must demonstrate a clear affinity with and specific knowledge of arts and culture in general
  - specifically, the essay must clearly answer a research question, provide a reasonable and reasonably well-organised argument that demonstrates a satisfactory understanding of the topic of the essay.
- A, B and C: one letter of reference in which the supporting scholar reports on the research capacities of the student.
- D: to be demonstrated by a well-argued and structured motivation letter in which the applicant indicates why he/she wants to follow the research MA programme and convincingly discusses what makes the applicant a good candidate for the research MA programme. The statement should be between 700 and 1,500 words.

In addition, to assess the admission requirements stated in 5.2.1, 5.2.2, and 5.2.3, the Board of Admissions will use the following documents:

- copies of diploma(s) and transcript(s);
- curriculum vitae (resume);
- proof of language proficiency (if applicable, see 5.2.3);

The admission process may include an interview with the Board of Admissions, should this be necessary to clarify whether the applicant has the same level of knowledge, understanding and skills as holders of a degree specified in 5.2.1.b. and meets the qualitative requirements specified in 5.2.4.1.

5.2.4.3 Proof that the student meets the qualitative admission requirements must be provided by the following deadline:

Start in September

- In case a visa or residence permit is required, the deadline for application in the online application portal (uSis) is 1 April.
- In case a visa or residence permit is not required, the deadline for application in the online application portal (uSis) is 15 May.

Start in February

- In case a visa or residence permit is required, the deadline for application in the online application portal (uSis) is 15 October.
- In case a visa or residence permit is not required, the deadline for application in the online application portal (uSis) is 15 November.

For further information on the admission procedure and required application documents please see: <https://www.universiteitleiden.nl/en/education/admission-and-application/masters>.

Article 5.3 Deficiencies

See the faculty section.

Article 5.4 Pre-master's programmes

5.4.1 Not applicable.

Chapter 7 Evaluation of the Programme

Article 7.1 Evaluation of the Programme

The programme is evaluated as follows:

- Course Evaluations
- Programme Evaluation

The Programme Committee advises the Programme Board based on the outcomes of the evaluation.

Appendix D – Transitional provisions

The Master's programmes Arts and Culture (research) and Literary Studies (research) are being phased out until August 2024. For students who are enrolled in Arts and Culture (research) or Literary Studies (research) the programme of Arts, Literature and Media (research) offers a set of equivalent courses in order to complete their programmes.
