Course and Examination Regulations

valid as of 1 September 2023

Programme-specific section:

Master's Programme: Asian Studies (120 EC)

These Course and Examination Regulations (henceforth OER) have been drawn up in accordance with the Higher Education and Research Act [Wet op het hoger onderwijs en wetenschappelijk onderzoek; WHW] (henceforth the Act) and the following Leiden University regulations:

- the Leiden Register of Study Programmes Framework Document;
- the Academic Calendar;
- the Regulations for Student Registration, Tuition Fees and Examination Fees;
- the Regulations for Admission to Master's Programmes;
- the Online Proctoring Protocol Leiden University.

The model OER are laid down in Dutch and then translated into English. In the event that there are differences between the two versions, the Dutch version will prevail.

Pursuant to Article 7.14 of the Act, the Faculty Board regularly evaluates the Course and Examination Regulations and considers, for the purpose of monitoring and adjusting the study load, how much time it takes students to comply. In accordance with Article 9.18 of the Act, the departmental committee is assigned the task of annually assessing the implementation of the OER.

These Course and Examination Regulations consist of two sections:

- a faculty section that is the same for all master's programmes and
- a section that contains information that is specific to a particular programme, what is known as the programme-specific section of the Course and Examination Regulations.

In the text below the relevant articles will refer to this programme-specific section. Other articles are included in the faculty section.

5. Modern language

- a. excellent command of Chinese, Japanese or Korean that enables the alumnus to use the language for academic and professional purposes;

6. Classical language

In addition, the following achievement levels apply for all specialisations, if relevant for students specialising in the pre-modern period:

- a. excellent command of pre-modern Chinese, classical Japanese or classical Korean;
- b. the ability to locate, assess and use original sources in pre-modern Chinese, classical Japanese or classical Korean.

7. Learning skills

- a. the learning skills required to be able to follow post-master's professional training or a PhD training of largely self-determined or autonomous nature.

Article 2.5 Study Load

The programme has a study load of 120 credits.

Article 2.8 Language of instruction

2.8.1. Subject to the Code of Conduct on the Language of Instruction and Examination¹ the language in which the instruction is given and in which the examinations and final examinations are held is English. Students are expected to have an adequate command of the language of instruction and examination in the programme, in accordance with the requirements stated in Article 5.2.3. As appropriate, the Faculty publishes the OER in English for English-taught programmes.

2.8.2. Contrary to Article 2.8.1, in individual cases the Board of Examiners can permit the student to write the final thesis in another language, in accordance with the Guideline on Language Policy.²

Chapter 5 Admission to the Programme as of September 2024

Article 5.1 Confirmation of admission

See the faculty section.

Article 5.2 Admission to the programme

5.2.1 Holders of one of the following degrees may be admitted to the programme (Article 7.30b (1) of the Act):

- a. Not applicable. No direct admission, see Article 5.2.1b.
- b. A bachelor's degree from a research university, equivalent to the level of a Dutch academic Bachelor's degree, including the General Academic Skills listed in Appendix B of the Faculty section of these regulations, and
 - Knowledge of the nature and role of as well as the ability to analyse and report on academic inquiry in the humanities or social sciences; and

- Prior education must include completed components at the bachelor's level (which may include the thesis) equivalent to at least 30 credits on at least three out of these six disciplines: history, art, culture, politics, society or economy of one or more East Asian countries or regions.

In addition, applicant must also meet the following specific requirements per specialisation:

Specialisation Chinese Studies

- fundamental knowledge of pre-modern and modern China; and
- knowledge of sinological traditions and understanding of disciplinary-methodological issues.
- sufficient command of Chinese, at least 250 points from HSK Test (Level 4), 180 points from HSK Test (Level 5), or TOCFL (Level 3).

Please note that because an important distinguishing aspect of the programme is advanced language acquisition in Chinese, this specialisation is not suitable for native speakers or for persons with a level 6 (HSK New Style) or equivalent level 6 (TOCFL).

Specialisation Japanese Studies

- fundamental knowledge of pre-modern and modern Japan; and
- knowledge of japanological traditions and understanding of disciplinary-methodological issues.
- sufficient command of Japanese, at JLTP 2 level, with a maximum of level JLTP 1.

Please note that because an important distinguishing aspect of the programme is advanced language acquisition in Japanese, this specialisation is not suitable for native speakers, and persons with near-native fluency and a BA or MA degree from a Japanese university.

Specialisation Korean Studies

- fundamental knowledge of pre-modern and modern Korea; and
- knowledge of Koreanist traditions and understanding of disciplinary-methodological issues.
- sufficient command of Korean, at level TOPIK 4.

Please note that because an important distinguishing aspect of the programme is advanced language acquisition in Korean, this specialisation is not suitable for native speakers, and for students with a higher TOPIK level.

- c. Not applicable.

It is not possible to apply to this programme with a degree from a Dutch University of Applied Sciences (hbo).

5.2.2 Any person who fails to meet the degree requirements or prescribed pre-master's requirement referred to in 5.2.1 may submit a request to the Board of Admissions. The Board of Admissions assesses whether the applicant may be granted admission to the programme.

To this end, the Board of Admissions assesses whether the applicant possesses sufficient knowledge, understanding and skills at the same level as a bachelor's degree or related bachelor's degree as referred to in 5.2.1, under (a) and (b) or whether they meet these conditions after additional requirements have been met. The Board of Admissions assesses, where relevant, whether the applicant meets the qualitative selection requirements referred to in 5.2.4.

Article 5.2.3 Dutch and English languages

5.2.3.1 As further clarification of Article 2.8 concerning command of the language of instruction, a student who wishes to be admitted to an English-taught master's programme must have one of the following diplomas, or must meet the criteria of:

- an International Baccalaureate diploma from a programme taught in English (or an IB diploma with English A);
- a diploma of secondary or higher education completed in Australia, Canada (with the exception of French-taught programmes in Canada), Ireland, Malta, New Zealand, Singapore, the United Kingdom, the United States or South-Africa;
- a diploma of an English-taught university degree programme completed at a Dutch research university;
- a Dutch pre-university education (VWO) diploma.

5.2.3.2 If a student who wishes to be admitted does not meet the requirements in 5.2.3.1, at least one of the following English language requirements for this master's programme can be set:

- IELTS 6.5; where each separate component score must be at least 6.0;
- TOEFL (Internet based) 90, where each separate component score must be at least 20³.

At the time when the student applies for the programme, the test must have been taken no more than two calendar years previously.

5.2.3.3 Not applicable.

5.2.3.4 Not applicable.

For more information on language tests and diplomas which are sufficient with regard to the required command of English please see <https://www.universiteitleiden.nl/en/education/admission-and-application/masters/admission-requirements-language-requirements>.

Article 5.2.4 Qualitative admission requirements

5.2.4.1 In addition to the requirements specified in 5.2.1 or 5.2.2 the following qualitative admission requirements apply for the programme pursuant to Article 7.30b (2) of the Act:

- A. Good grades comparable with an average mark of at least 7.0 (Dutch grading system) for the entire bachelor's programme, and
- B. A grade for the bachelor's thesis of a 7.0 or higher (Dutch grading system), and
- C. Demonstrable motivation to study the particular MA programme/specialisation, and
- D. Good academic writing skills: the ability to write a well-structured essay/paper on a topic in the specific field of the specialisation in English.

5.2.4.2 Where article 5.2.4.1 applies, the admission requirements will be implemented as follows:

- A and B: as evidenced by a transcript of records/ grade list (including the grade of the Bachelor's thesis) and diploma of the relevant obtained academic degree;
- C: to be demonstrated by a well-argued and structured motivation letter in which the applicant indicates why he/she wants to follow the MA programme, and shows clear understanding of the content of the study programme, specifically listing two courses of the current study programme (from the Prospectus) and explaining why these appeal to the applicant.

The statement should be between 700 and 1,500 words.

- D: To be demonstrated by a “Writing Sample”. All applicants are required to submit a writing sample (a relevant research paper or Bachelor’s Thesis). In case applicants are unable to demonstrate via a writing sample that they meet the requirement sub 5.2.4.1G, they are required to submit a 1,250 word essay as part of the admission process:
 - in this essay they must demonstrate a clear affinity with and specific knowledge of Asian studies in general and specifically in the field of the specialisation for which they apply,
 - specifically, the essay must clearly answer a research question, provide a reasonable and reasonably well-organised argument that demonstrates a satisfactory understanding of the topic of the essay.
- C and D: as reflected in two letters of reference, of which at least one by an academic member of staff.

In addition, to assess the admission requirements stated in 5.2.1, 5.2.2, and 5.2.3, the Board of Admissions will use the following documents:

- copies of diploma(s) and transcript(s);
- curriculum vitae (resume);
- proof of language proficiency (if applicable, see 5.2.3).

The admission process may include an interview with the Board of Admissions, should this be necessary to clarify whether the applicant has the same level of knowledge, understanding and skills as holders of a degree specified in 5.2.1.b. and meets the qualitative requirements specified in 5.2.4.1.

5.2.4.3 Where article 5.2.4.1 applies, the deadline for the admission requirements is as follows:

1. The admissions assessment takes place once a year in respect of the intake in September.
2. Requests for admission to the specialisation in Chinese Studies, Japanese Studies or Korean Studies must be submitted before 1 April. Given the selective nature of the specialisation, this deadline applies to all applicants.

For further information on the admission procedure and required application documents please see <https://www.universiteitleiden.nl/en/education/admission-and-application/masters>.

5.2.5 Maximum capacity

5.2.5.1 The Executive Board has determined a maximum capacity for the specialisations of this programme. The order of admission will be determined by the qualitative admission requirements as referred to in Article 5.2.4. The maximum capacity set for the specialisations of this programme for the academic year 2023-2024 is:

- Chinese Studies: 30 students;
- Japanese Studies: 17 students;
- Korean Studies: 12 students.

The maximum capacity set for the specialisations of this programme for the academic year 2024-2025 is:

- Chinese Studies: 30 students;
- Japanese Studies: 17 students;
- Korean Studies: 12 students.

- 5.2.5.2 Where article 5.2.5.1 applies, the method of selection on the grounds of the criteria will be as follows:
1. With regard to admission to the programme, the Admissions Board assesses the knowledge and skills of the applicants on the basis of the files they have submitted.
 2. If necessary the Board can contact the applicant by mail or telephone at any time during the admission procedure in order to gain further information.
 3. The Admissions Board decides on the basis of this assessment
 - a. which applicants meet the entry requirements of the specialisation – if appropriate on the condition that they have been awarded their bachelor’s degree in time – and can in principle be admitted;
 - b. which applicants cannot be admitted because they do not meet the requirements.
 4. The Board ranks the suitability of the applicants in category a to the specialisation of the MA programme on the basis of the files they have submitted, having regard to the qualitative admission requirements as specified in article 5.2.4. and, if the Board has requested this, the further information provided by the applicant.

5.2.5.3 Where article 5.2.5.1 applies, the deadlines for selection are as follows:

1. Applicants who are placed in category b, as referred to in article 5.2.5.2, point 4, receive a negative admissions decision by 1 May at the latest.
2. On the basis of the ranking as referred to article 5.2.5.2 point 4, the Board issues a recommendation on 15 May at the latest to the Faculty Board to admit the top ranking applicants to the respective specialisations of the programme, up to the numbers specified in article 5.2.5.1. These applicants receive a positive admissions decision on 31 May at the latest.
3. The remaining applicants in category a are informed that they can in principle be admitted to the programme but that they have been placed on the waiting list and will not receive an admissions decision pending places becoming free. They are informed here of their position on the waiting list.
4. Applicants who have received a positive admissions decision must express within two weeks of the date of the decision whether they will enrol on the programme. If an applicant does not indicate within this period whether he or she will take the place in the programme, the applicant at the top of the waiting list will receive a positive admissions decision.

5.2.5.4 Where article 5.2.5.1 applies, the weighting of the criteria will be as follows:

Applicants are ranked in four groups A, B, C, and D:

A: An excellent candidate who meets all the admissions requirements: 1) overall grades 7.5 and above (Dutch grading system); 2) a grade for the bachelor’s thesis of a 7.5 or higher (Dutch grading system); 3) an exemplary, original letter of motivation which demonstrates excellent motivation, insight of and suitability for the programme; 4) an excellent writing sample in accordance with academic standards of the field of the specialisation.

B: A very good candidate who meets two or three of the admissions requirements: 1) overall grades 7.0-7.4 (Dutch grading system); 2) a grade for the bachelor’s thesis of a 7.0-7.4 (Dutch grading system); and either 3) a good letter of motivation which shows clear motivation, insight of and familiarity with the program, or 4) a good writing sample which shows familiarity with the field of the specialisation.

C: An acceptable candidate who meets one of the admissions requirements: either 1) overall grade 7.0-7.4 (Dutch grading system); or 2) a grade for the bachelor’s thesis of a 7.0-7.4 (Dutch grading system); or 3) a good letter of motivation which shows motivation and some familiarity with the program; or 4) a good writing sample which shows familiarity with the field of the specialisation.

D: A candidate who does not meet any of the qualitative admission requirements: 1) an academic record below 7.0 (Dutch grading system); 2) a grade for the bachelor's thesis of a 6.9 or lower (Dutch grading system) and 3) a below standard letter of motivation and writing sample.

Article 5.3 Deficiencies

See the faculty section.

Article 5.4 Pre-Master programmes

Not applicable.

Chapter 7 Evaluation of the Programme

Article 7.1 Evaluation of the programme

The programme is evaluated as follows:

- course evaluations
- programme evaluation

The Programme Committee advises the Programme Board based on the outcomes of the evaluation.
