Course and Examination Regulations

Valid from 1 september 2013

Master's Programme Crisis and Security Management

These course and examination regulations have been drawn up in accordance with Section 7.13 of the Higher Education and Research Act [Wet op het hoger onderwijs en wetenschappelijk onderzoek] (WHW) (henceforth the Act) and additional quality marks as set out in the framework document Leiden University Register of Study Programmes [Leids universitair register opleidingen].

Pursuant to Section 7.14 of the Act the faculty board regularly evaluates the course and examination regulations and assesses, for the purpose of monitoring and, if necessary, adjusting the study load, the time it takes students to comply with the regulations. In conformity with Section 9.18 of the Act, the department teaching committee is assigned the task of annually assessing how the course and examination regulations are implemented.

Chapter 2 Description of the Programme

Article 2.1 Objectives of the Programme

The Master of Science program in Crisis and Security Management is an academic programme that emphasizes the ability to understand and analytically apply insights from Public Administration and other disciplines to problems of crisis and security management. The program aims to educate students to become scientifically trained crisis and security management experts in a broad sense. The program is rooted in social science research, but is also interdisciplinary, in casu: social sciences, history and law. It aims to teach students to develop a critical attitude and adopt a perspective of scholarly independence. The programme strives to convey both general knowledge of the core themes and approaches in crisis and security management and an awareness of specific problems and issues in this field. Furthermore, the program emphasizes the ability to reflect on the ethical and normative dimensions of crisis and security management and their consequences for the behavior of government officials, agencies, actors in civil society and private sector. The graduate is thus capable of recognizing and analyzing a broad range of complex problems in the domain of crisis and security management, both at the national and the international level. The graduate is able to undertake independent research at graduate level, applying a broad range of theoretical approaches relevant to crisis and security management.

Article 2.2 Specialisations

Not applicable.

Article 2.3 Achievement Levels

Graduates of the programmes will have reached the following achievement levels:

- a. Graduates from the Leiden Master of Crisis and Security Management have a profound awareness of the distinct nature of crisis, security, and of crisis and security management, related to the public sector.
- b. Graduates from the Leiden Master of Crisis and Security Management have a thorough understanding of the various crisis and security management theories and approaches which are commonly used in the profile of the master.
- c. Graduates from the Leiden Master of Crisis and Security Management possess the capacity to identify a theoretical framework suitable for addressing crisis and security management problems and issues.
- d. Graduates from the Leiden Master of Crisis and Security Management have the capacity to apply various theoretical frameworks in conducting independently basic research in crisis and security management issues.
- e. Graduates from the Leiden Master of Crisis and Security Management are capable of critically selecting, studying and analyzing crisis and security management literature.
- f. Graduates from the Leiden Master of Crisis and Security Management possess the capacity to report independently about crisis and security management research which is carried out according to current academic standards.
- g. Advanced capacity to make arguments and to reflect upon the arguments of others.
- h. Awareness of relevant normative and ethical issues, related to crisis and security management.
- i. Advanced capacity to function in multi- and inter-disciplinary teams as a broker between specialists.
- j. Critical attitude and international orientation.

Article 2.4 Structure of the Programme

The programme offers full-time tuition only.

Article 2.5 Study Load

The course load of the programme is 60 credits.

Article 2.6 Start of the Programme; Uniform Structure of the Academic Year

The programme starts on 1 September and 1 February of every year. As far as courses are concerned, the programme is based the uniform structure of the academic year, with the academic year being divided into semesters.⁴

Article 2.7 Final Examinations of the Programme

The programme includes a final examination.

Article 2.8 Language of Instruction

In compliance with the Code of Conduct regarding Foreign Languages [*Gedragcode voertaal*⁵] the languages of instruction and examination in the programme are English and Dutch. Students are expected to have an adequate command of the language(s) of instruction of the programme.

Article 2.9 Quality

The programme is accredited by the Accreditation Organisation of the Netherlands and Flanders (NVAO) and complies with the applicable national and international quality requirements, and with the quality standards with regard to teaching set out in the framework document Leiden University Register of Study Programmes.

Chapter 3 Curriculum

Article 3.1 Mandatory Components

- 3.1.1 The programme includes mandatory components totalling a study load of 60 credits. These mandatory components include the specialization courses from which a student is obliged to choose.
- 3.1.2 The e-prospectus contains a further specification of the study load, the level,⁶ the contents and the structure of the curriculum components.
- 3.1.3 If fewer than 8 students participate in a non-mandatory course (a specialization course or an elective), the departmental board may decide not to offer this course or to offer it in a different form; in this case, students will be offered an alternative.

Article 3.2 Freedom of Choice

- 3.2.1 Not applicable.
- 3.2.2 Not applicable.

⁴ The uniform structure of the academic year and the explanatory notes to the new semester structure were adopted by the Executive Board on 14 October 2004 and reviewed on 12 January 2010.

⁵ The Code of Conduct regarding Foreign Languages [Gedragcode voertaal] was adopted by the Executive Board on 11 July 2002 and can be found at the following website: media.leidenuniv.nl/legacy/language of instruction.pdf

⁶ In accordance with the 'abstract structure' as described in the framework document Leiden University Register of Study Programmes.

3.2.3 In addition to the components taught at this university, optional courses may also include, subject to the approval of the Board of Examiners, components offered by other Dutch universities or a foreign university or another legal entity with accreditation in initial education.

3.2.4 A student who is enrolled for the programme can, with the permission of the most relevant Board of Examiners, put together a programme consisting of components which are taught by an institution to which a final examination is attached. In granting permission, the Board of Examiners will also indicate under which programme of the institution this programme is intended to fall.⁷

Article 3.3 Practicals

3.3.1 The e-prospectus lists for each component which practicals they include, what the nature of these practicals is, and the student's workload for these practicals, as well as whether participation in these practicals is mandatory for entry to the examination of the component. The Board of Examiners may grant exemption from a practical, in which case the Board may or may not impose alternative requirements.

3.3.2 The e-prospectus states the size and study load of the final report. It also contains a description of the standards that the final report must meet and the further procedure applying to the supervision.

Article 3.4 Participation in courses

Participation in courses takes place in order of registration, with the provision that students who are registered in a programme are guaranteed access to the obligatory courses of that programme.

Article 3.5 Recording Lectures

Students are not allowed to make audio or video recordings of lectures without explicit prior permission from the relevant lecturer. Should such permission be granted, the student is only legally allowed to use the recording for his/her own use; all forms of duplication or publication of the recordings are prohibited.

Chapter 4 Examinations, Final Examination and Further Education

Article 4.1 Frequency of Examinations

4.1.1 For each component offered in an academic year, examinations will be held twice during that year.

4.1.2 If a component contains a practical, students may only sit the examination as referred to in paragraph 4.1.1 if they have successfully completed the practical, unless the Board of Examiners decides otherwise.

4.1.3 If the mark for a component results from several partial marks, deviation is possible from the number of sittings as referred to in 4.1.1. When applicable, this is stated in the e-prospectus.

4.1.4 In accordance with Section 7.13, second paragraph under (h) of the Act, the e-prospectus specifies the dates of the examinations.

4.1.5 The student is required to sit the examination at the first occasion after the course has ended, unless the Board of Examiners decides otherwise.

4.1.6 Admission to a second opportunity to sit the examination is subject to conditions specified in the Rules and Regulations of the Board of Examiners.

4.1.7 In special cases, the Board of Examiners may allow for an additional resit, at the student's request.

⁷ In accordance with Section 7.3d of the Act ('free programme in Academic Education').

4.1.8 If an examination has been passed successfully, the opportunity to do a resit lapses. Should a student nevertheless take part in a resit without explicit permission from the Board of Examiners, no grade will be given. The result of the first test will remain valid.

Article 4.2 Obligatory Order

4.2.1 The e-prospectus specifies which components with their attendant examinations cannot be taken before the examinations of one or more other components have been successfully completed;

4.2.2 For the components and their attendant examinations which must be completed in a given sequence, the Board of Examiners may in special cases, and upon motivated written request of the student, decide on a different sequence.

Article 4.3 Methods of assessment and Examination Formats

4.3.1 The e-prospectus states whether assessment may take place by means of either a written or oral examination or a skillstest.

4.3.2 In special cases, on request of the student, the Board of Examiners may allow the student to take the examination in a manner that deviates from the one prescribed in the e-prospectus.

4.3.3 Students with a disability may take examinations in a manner that has been adjusted to their particular disability, in order to accommodate their disability as much as possible. These adjustments may not affect the quality or level of difficulty of the examination. If necessary, the Board of Examiners will seek expert advice, as provided for in the Protocol on Studying with a Disability, before reaching a decision.

4.3.4 The Board of Examiners decides upon requests to adjust the manner in which examinations are taken.

4.3.5 The examination shall take place in the Dutch language or in another language, in accordance with the code of conduct on the language of instruction and examination [Gedragscode voertaal].

4.3.6 Students will be assessed on an individual basis if a component involves presentations, research, reports or other course activities that require students to work in groups.

Article 4.4 Oral Examinations

4.4.1 An oral examination may involve only one student at a time, unless the Board of Examiners has decided otherwise.

4.4.2 Oral examinations are public, unless the Board of Examiners or the examiner concerned has decided otherwise, owing to special circumstances, or unless the student objects.

Article 4.5 Rules set by the Board of Examiners

4.5.1 In accordance with Section 7.12b (3) of the Act, the Board of Examiners has set out rules concerning the execution of their tasks and responsibilities and the measures they can take in this respect. The Board of Examiners has formulated a number of rules and regulations for this contingency.

4.5.2 The Board of Examiners guarantees the right of a student to appeal against decisions of the Board or the examiners.

4.5.3 In addition, the Board of Examiners is responsible for formulating a procedure for the appointment of a first and second examiner for the thesis, as well as the procedure surrounding the assessment of the thesis and how the responsibilities, including determining the grade, are divided between the first and the second examiner.

Article 4.6 Assessment

4.6.1 Immediately after the oral examination, the examiner shall inform students of their results and hand them a written notification of these results.

- 4.6.2 Within fifteen working days after the date of the examination or test, the examiner shall mark any written examination or other test and provide the administration office of the department with the information necessary to present the student with a written or electronic notification of the examination results.
- 4.6.3 If the examiner is unable to comply with the period of 15 working days specified in article 4.6.2, the student shall be notified thereof within said time limit. The student shall also be informed of the relevant procedure in such cases.
- 4.6.4 The result of the examination shall be expressed as a whole or fractional number with one decimal between 1.0 and 10.0, including both limits. The result shall not be expressed as a number between 5.0 and 6.0.
- 4.6.5 The examination is considered to be successfully completed if the result is 6 or higher.
- 4.6.6 The successful completion a practical may qualify as the successful completion of an examination in the sense of Article 7.10 of the Act.
- 4.6.7 The written or electronic notification of the examination result informs students of their right to inspect their marked examination papers – referred to in Article 4.8 below which provides for the access of students to examination scripts – and of the appeals procedure.
- 4.6.8 The Board of Examiners formulates regulations which specify the conditions under which the Board may exercise its authority as specified in Section 7.12b (3) of the Act to determine that not every examination needs to be successfully completed and/or what the conditions are under which the results of partial examinations can compensate for one another. These regulations are included in the Rules and Regulations of the Board of Examiners.

Article 4.7 Period of Validity of Results

- 4.7.1 Every examination and exemption granted has a validity period of 3 years.
- 4.7.2 The Board of Examiners may, in accordance with the guidelines it has formulated, and at the request of the examination candidate, extend the period of validity by one year each time (Article 4.10 of the Rules and Regulations of the Board of Examiners).

Article 4.8 Access to Marked Examinations and Evaluation

- 4.8.1 Students have the right to view their marked examination for a period of thirty days following the publication of the results of a written examination.
- 4.8.2 During the period referred to in 4.8.1, the examination questions and assignments, as well as – if possible – the marking criteria, may be inspected.
- 4.8.3 The marked test will be evaluated at the request of the student. The opportunity to do so will be announced together with the examination results.
- 4.8.4 The Board of Examiners is authorised to decide whether the test will be evaluated collectively or individually.
- 4.8.5 The Board of Examiners determines where and when the evaluation will take place.
- 4.8.6 Students who, due to circumstances beyond their control, are unable to attend the evaluation referred to in paragraph 4.8.3 shall be granted another opportunity for evaluation, if possible within the period referred to in 4.8.1.

Article 4.9 Exemption from Examinations and/or Practicals

At the student's request and after consultation with the examiner involved, the Board of Examiners may grant the student exemption from one or more examinations or practicals under the following conditions:

- The student has successfully completed, at a university or an institute of higher professional education, a programme component that is similar in content and level to the component for which the student requests exemption, or
- The student has demonstrated, through relevant work or professional experience, that he or she has acquired sufficient skills and knowledge in relation to the relevant component.

Article 4.10 Final Examination

- 4.10.1 The student will be awarded a diploma by the Board of Examiners once he or she can provide sufficient proof that all the tests of the final examination have been successfully completed and the student is in possession of a bachelor's degree as referred to Article 5.1 or a proof of admission as referred to in Article 5.2.
- 4.10.2 The Board of Examiners is entitled to perform an additional test of the knowledge, understanding and skills of the examination candidate and assess the results.
- 4.10.3 Graduation does not take place before the Executive Board has declared that all procedural requirements (including the requirement to pay tuition fees) have been met. One diploma will be awarded for each programme. It is recorded on the diploma that the programme or the specialisation has been delivered by Leiden University.
- 4.10.4 Pursuant to the regulations referred to in Section 7.11 (3) of the Act a student who is entitled to graduate may ask the Board of Examiners to postpone the event, as long as the enrolment period for the programme in question has not exceeded the nominal duration of studies plus one year.
- 4.10.5 This request must be submitted within five working days of the student receiving his or her examination results. In this request the student must state when he or she wishes to graduate.
- 4.10.6 The Board of Examiners can also approve the request if not approving it would lead to extreme unfairness.
- 4.10.7 A supplement written in English complying with the agreed European standard format is attached to the degree certificate. The certificate also includes a translation of the certificate and a Latin certificate.

Article 4.11 The Degree

- 4.11.1 A degree of Master of Science is awarded to those who have passed the final examination of the programme.
- 4.11.2 The degree certificate states the degree awarded.

Article 4.12 Further Education

The diploma awarded grants access to the PhD track.

Chapter 5 Admission to the Programme

Section 5.1 Direct Admission

Article 5.1 Direct Admission

Direct admission is reserved for persons who are in possession of a bachelor's degree obtained after completion of the Bestuurskunde programme at Leiden University.

Section 5.2 Admission (by or on behalf of the Faculty Board)

Article 5.2 Confirmation of Admission

5.2.1 A confirmation of admission can be issued by the Faculty Board if the student fulfils the entry requirements specified in Article 5.3 in so far as the maximum number of enrolled students as determined by the Executive Board for the programme is not exceeded.

5.2.2 The confirmation of admission must be applied for according to the rules set out in the Regulations for Admission to the Master's programmes.⁸

Article 5.3 Entry Requirements

Without prejudice to the stipulations of Article 5.2.1 regarding maximum capacity, admission will be granted to persons

- Who are in possession of qualities in the areas of knowledge, understanding and skills which should have been acquired by the end of (one of) the bachelor's programmes referred to in Article 5.1; and
- Who have obtained a bachelor's degree from a university, of who can prove that they fulfil the requirements of such a degree; and
- Who in the opinion of the Faculty Board have sufficient command of the language(s) of instruction of the programme to be assessed by the board of admissions, based on the following tests:

TOEFL: internet based 100, computerbased 250, paper based 600

IELTS: test level 7

Article 5.4 Deficiencies

5.4.1 Students who possess a bachelor's degree or an equivalent diploma but who nevertheless still have 5 study credits worth of deficiencies, can be admitted to the programme if it can be reasonably expected that they will be able to meet the entry requirements within a reasonable period of time.

5.4.2 Students who still have deficiencies as referred to in 5.4.1 may follow the course, after being admitted to the programme, but they may not take final examinations or examinations which are specified by the Faculty Board in their decision to allow admission.

5.4.3 For admission as referred to in 5.4.1, the Admissions Board will formulate a catching up programme with examination opportunities.

5.4.4 If on the grounds of 5.4.1 a student is admitted to the programme, the tests which must be completed in order to fulfil the entry requirements do not in any way form part of the curriculum of the master's programme.

5.4.5 In special cases the faculty board can admit a student to the programme who is preparing for the final examination of the bachelor's programme at the student's request if reasons beyond his or her control hampered his or her progress and a disproportionate study delay would arise if he or she were not allowed to start the master's programme.

5.4.6 The faculty board considers the request on the basis of the rules in Article 2.5, second paragraph of the Regulations for Admission to the Master's Programmes.

5.4.7 Once he or she has passed the final examination of the bachelor's programme, his or her admission will be converted into definitive admission.

5.4.8 Students who are considering appealing to the hardship clause must submit the request to the faculty board before 1 August (if they wish to start on 1 September) or before 1 January (if they wish to start on 1 February) of the current academic year.

⁸ The Regulations for Admission to Master's Programmes of Leiden University was established by the Executive Board on 27 April 2005 and modified by degree on 20 December 2005 and 6 March 2007; it can be found on the following website: www.reglementen.leidenuniv.nl/onderwijs-onderzoek/regeling-toelating-masteropleidingen.html

Article 5.5 Bridging Programme

- 5.5.1 The department has organised bridging programmes in order to remedy deficiencies.
- 5.5.2 Information regarding the bridging programmes can be requested from the department

Chapter 6 Student Counselling and Study Advice

Article 6.1 Student Progress Report

- 6.1.1 The department keeps records of the study results of individual students.
- 6.1.2 The department provides each student with an overview of the study results obtained at least 2 times a year.
- 6.1.3 If, in the opinion of the department, the students is seriously lagging behind compared with the required study progress, the department will draw the student's attention to the possibility of support in formulating a study plan.

Article 6.2 Introduction and Student Counselling

The department provides an introduction and counselling for all students.

Article 6.3 Supervision of the Final Assignment

- 6.3.1 The student makes a plan for the final assignment together with the supervisor as referred to in 3.3.2. This plan is based on the study load specified for this component in the appendix referred to in 3.3.2.

Article 6.4 Professional Sports

Students who play sports at a professional level are offered the opportunity to adjust their study programme to their sporting activities wherever possible. The department follows the guidelines drawn up by the Executive Board to determine who fits into this category.

Article 6.5 Permanent Disabilities

Where possible, students with a disability or chronic illness are offered the opportunity to adjust their study programme, as far as is reasonably possible, in line with the limitations resulting from their disability or illness. These adjustments will take into account the relevant limitations of the individual student. The Board of Examiners will give every consideration to the limitations of each individual student, however the Board also will bear in mind the achievement levels of the programme and the proportionality of the possible adjustments.

Chapter 7 Transitional Provisions

Article 7.1 Provisions Concerning Students Previously Enrolled in the Programme

- 7.1.1 As of 1 September 2012, for students who are enrolled in the programme for the first time, the Course and Examination Regulations apply for a duration of one year.
- 7.1.2 Not applicable.
- 7.1.3 For students who before 31 August 2012 were enrolled for the first time in the programme at a time no longer than five years before the date on these regulations entered into force, or upon request of the student, the Board of Examiners may choose to apply the Course and Examination Regulations as it was in any year no longer than five years prior to the date at which these regulations entered into force.

7.1.4 If components as referred to in 3.1.1 and 3.2 of the Course and Examination Regulations applicable pursuant to 7.1.1 and 7.1.2 are no longer on offer, the Board of Examiners will indicate components to replace them. If necessary, components may be indicated that are offered by another institution.

Chapter 8 Final Provisions

Article 8.1 Amendments

8.1.1 Amendments to these regulations are implemented by a separate order of the Faculty Board with the prior consent of the Faculty Council.

8.1.2 Amendments to these regulations which apply to a particular academic year shall be implemented before the beginning of that year and published in the prescribed manner, unless earlier implementation of an amendment to the regulations is strictly necessary and in all reasonableness does not harm the students' interests.

8.1.3 Amendments to these regulations may not adversely affect any prior decision pertaining to students taken by the Board of Examiners on the basis of these regulations.

Article 8.2 Publication

The department is responsible for the publication of these regulations, of the rules and guidelines set by the Board of Examiners, and of any amendment to these articles via the university website.

Article 8.3 Entry into Force

These regulations will enter into force on 1 September 2013.
